THE COMMUNITY AND DISTRICT

Robert E. Lee High School is part of the Tyler Independent School District, located in Tyler, TX, in the heart of Smith County. Our city, known for civic pride and business opportunities, is a thriving community of steady corporate and residential growth. Roses and oil are two industries which support the area.

Tyler ISD encompasses 193 square miles with a population of over 100,000. The school district instructs over 18,000 students in seventeen elementary schools, six middle schools, two alternative high schools, a special education campus, and two high schools. Within the local commuting area, three institutions of higher learning offer post-secondary education: Tyler Junior College, Texas College and the University of Texas at Tyler.

The City of Tyler maintains a small town atmosphere while offering its residents many cultural, recreational and entertainment advantages of a large city.
